Surrey Faith Links now hosted by Surrey Ethnic Minority Forum

Following discussions with Surrey County Council the Surrey Minority Ethnic Forum (SMEF) will now host the Surrey Faith Links Project.

SMEF is a race equalities organisation set up to advocate for the needs and aspirations of Surrey’s 17% ethnic minority population. Their mission is to be a voice for BAME communities, increasing confidence in their ability to shape their destinies by a shared understanding of their values, rights and responsibilities. To that end, they provide a neutral space where people of diverse cultures, histories, ethnicities come together to find solutions to the common economic and social challenges they face living in Britain today.

“SMEF being a Race Equality charity with a membership of 48 BAME community groups belonging to different faiths has a natural affinity to working with the Faith sector. We are excited about this opportunity and are confident that the synergies that our joint working will create will be beneficial for all Surrey stakeholders. We look forward to delivering the strategic objectives of the 2030 Vision for Surrey where ‘no one is left behind’.” Suzanne Akram, Executive Director, SMEF).

SMEF have organised a zoom session about the programmes they are currently running, more information and zoom details on page 7 of this newsletter.

21 March Anti-Racism Live Report/ Highlights Film

The International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, 21 March 2021 is now behind us and its fantastic success was due to the engagement and commitment of individuals and organisations all over the world.

On 21 March 2021, Peace One Day, in association with the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, produced the Anti-Racism Live Global Digital Experience. Their goals were to raise awareness of the Anti-Racism Day, and to manifest dialogue and action across the world to #fightracism. The broadcast involved 9 hours of dynamic online content including panel discussions with thought leaders on anti-racism, special interviews, live moments from different continents, Words of Peace from some of the greatest actors and music from international artists.

If you missed the broadcast, look out for selected content that have been sign-posted through Social Media every day; and you can see everything as individual films on the Anti-Racism Live section of peaceoneday.org and watch the 21 March highlights film here.

Peace One Day's mission is to expose people to the messages of peace, sustainability, diversity, inclusion, equality and justice. Awareness manifests action and action reduces violence, as we change our behaviour towards each other and our environment.

COVID-19 and safe use of places of worship

Faith Festivals

A number of key faith festivals and times of observance are marked by Christians, Hindus, Jains, Jews, Muslims and Sikhs in this month. There has been renewed focus on safe celebration of festivals, with the UK Government updating its guidance on this for places of worship in England. This year, again, the festivals will be celebrated in a very different way from usual. There will be distanced in person services combined with virtual ones, and events happening place mainly online.

On 22 February the Prime Minister announced the 'COVID-19 Response - Spring 2021' which set out a roadmap for exiting the current lockdown for England. It contains a number of provisional dates for easing of restrictions. Places of Worship have been able to remain open for communal worship through the most recent restrictions.

Guidance for Places of Worship was updated on 26 March. This enabled singing by officiants to take place in cathedrals from 28 March and singing outside places of worship from that date, one day before the easing of general restrictions.

Report on COVID-19 disparities

On 26 February, Minister for Equalities, Kemi Badenoch MP, published the second quarterly report to the Prime Minister and Health Secretary on progress to understand and tackle COVID-19 disparities experienced by individuals from an ethnic minority background.

The Minister's first report on COVID-19 disparities was published in October. This concluded that a range of socioeconomic and geographical factors coupled with pre-existing health conditions were contributing to the higher infection and mortality rates for ethnic minority groups, with a part of the excess risk remaining unexplained for some groups. This second report looks at those causes in more detail and sets out some of the work undertaken to fill the gaps in understanding and to mitigate the risks of COVID-19 infection. It sets out the progress made under the terms of reference and in implementing the recommendations from the first report.

Financial impact of COVID-19

The pandemic has affected significantly the resources of faith groups and faith-based charities. In February a group of charities launched an open letter from their CEOs to ask the Prime Minister to consider a special package of support. The open letter, which can be signed by any voluntary organisation, can be found at <https://nmn.org.uk/rightnow-campaign-open-letter/>.

Churches Together in Britain and Ireland and the Council of Christians and Jews have produced a resource, Connected Communities: Churches Responding to Prejudice Against Jews and Judaism, for Christians to learn more about Jewish-Christian dialogue, antisemitism, and anti-Judaism. The intent is “to grow appreciation for the connections that have linked Christians and Jews for the last two thousand years, to equip local churches to engage in Jewish-Christian dialogue, and to cultivate esteem for Judaism in Irish and British churches.” The resource can be downloaded at <https://ctbi.org.uk/responding-to-prejudice-against-jews/>.

Guide to Working Together at the Local Level

The guide is to improve and to increase partnerships between local authorities and local faith or belief groups. The Surrey Lieutenancy

The Surrey Lieutenancy would like to invite you to respond to a very short questionnaire in order to gain a better understanding of your charity and the kind of support you would like to receive. Your open and honest answers to the following questionnaire would be of great help in this. Ideally, you would be a volunteer or a paid worker for a Surrey-based charity.

The questionnaire can be found at this link: <https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/TBJVK29> and should only take you 5 minutes to complete, and we hope that the information you provide will help the Surrey Lieutenancy to better support and better connect with your organisation and the wider charity sector in Surrey in the future.
