Addlestone	About 1/3rd of our members do not have internet access so we distribute hard copies of our church news, Thursday Prayer meeting, Sunday Services and Pastoral letters to them. Several of our members have now joined with Weybridge for their Sunday Zoom Service. Currently not looking to have live services before October at the earliest.
Byfleet	The Revd David Faulkner produces a weekly video Reflection which is published at 8:00 a.m. on Sunday and can be found at https://youtu.be/cadgNoFH2HU The Superintendent's pastoral letter and other worship material received via the Circuit Office is emailed to all the church family where possible, otherwise hard copies are hand delivered Live Worship Services have now re-commenced. On Sunday 13th September the preacher will be The Revd. David Faulkner and we will celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Communion and Harvest Festival. All are welcome; Byfleet has a large sanctuary and seating will be allocated as you enter to ensure social distancing is adhered to. Face masks must be worn when in the Church (medical dispensations apply). The weekend of 12th/13th September is also National Heritage Weekend when the church will be open to visitors throughout, during which an exhibition of our history will be on display. If you don't know this fine example of an Art Deco church, do come and visit us between 10.00 a.m. and 4.00 p.m.
